15 April 2017

- Full academic programme
- Full sports programme
- Pastoral care and laundry
- Local transportation
- Full board and lodging

Not included:

- £70 annual BSA registration fee
- £100 deposit per week, up to £400. Held separately from fees as a credit on account.
- Pila/Crevacol/Cogne main training area season passes, £440 if purchased through the BSA by 30 November. Weekly ski passes (6 days) are £160 for under 14s and £180 for 14 and over. The weekly passes include lane hire and up to three day passes for excursions/races in the other Aosta Valley resorts. See below
- Airport transfers to BSA Base. There are minibus operators providing a regular service or we provide transfers from Turin Caselle: £90, Milan Malpensa, £110, or Geneva (only by arrangement) £130, with supervised check-ins included. We do not serve Milan Linate. On any transfers there is a £30 surcharge when a driver has to wait with an 'unaccompanied minor' until flight departure or transfers at untimely hours. On shared transfers £30 extra due per head with the total cost shared.
- Excursion costs away from base. eg. £200 surcharge for British Champs, Easter - see below BASS Races Supplements 2017 Table at end of file.
- Personal ski equipment and competition entry fees (remember to enter on time)

Fees for trainees living off campus.

The fee for a sport + lunch + school programme is 2/3 of normal BSA fees.

The fee for ski training only (lunch not included) is £70 per day or £50 per morning. The fee for race support is £50 per day in Aosta and £60 per day elsewhere.

WSF: Fees can be paid by donation through the Winter Sports Foundation, with the donor's tax reclaimed. See WSF links on the website.

BSA Bursaries: Awards are available for racers who represent the BSA. Enquiries and applications to the BSA (UK) office.

- Medical insurance and cancellation insurance: We recommend our customers take out travel insurance to include cancellation cover in case of illness, injury or unavoidable delay in departure from the UK. Please see below.
- * Invoices will be raised on receipt and confirmation of Application Form 1 with the registration fee (£70) then Form 2 and the deposit (up to £400). Payment schedules can be spread over the season. Please see terms below.
- ** "Base" refers to the Hotel Miage, the BSA's winter base in Aosta.

Terms & Conditions

The Contract

- The British Ski Academy will confirm your booking with an invoice on receipt of the appropriate deposit and your Acceptance form (Application part 2).
- The terms and conditions set out here, together with your confirmation invoice, comprise the agreement between you and the British Ski Academy.
- Payment of any monies constitutes a commitment to proceed with the booking once your application is confirmed by invoice and those monies are non-refundable unless your booking cannot be fulfilled.
- At the British Ski Academy we undertake to do our utmost to foster your racer's development in the sport of Alpine ski racing, to support their educational programme and to provide for their welfare.
- A signed Athlete's declaration form, (minors to be counter-signed by parents) will be required to help establish expected standards of conduct abroad.

Fees

50% of fees are due four weeks before arrival at the latest. (For bookings made within four weeks of arrival the deposit and 50% of fees are due immediately to secure the booking.) The balance is due no later than two weeks before arrival. (For bookings made within two weeks of arrival, the deposit and 100% of fees are due before the booking can be accepted.) Please note that we cannot run credit accounts. Trainees will not be received at the British Ski Academy if fees have not been paid in full before arrival.

Cancellations

If you want to cancel your booking, you must tell us immediately. If you cancel, you will be liable to pay the cancellation charges set out in the table below. Charges depend on the date when we receive your cancellation.
